I sent in my résumé, and four hours later, they called me to see if I could go to an interview on Thursday. After that, I was feeling very excited but then, when the day arrived, I felt really nervous. I couldn't sleep at all! I prepared myself and arrived 20 minutes early to the office. I thought I would have to wait but as soon as I arrived they sent me to human resources. Immediately, the manager began asking the usual questions about me and my career when suddenly the boss came in. Unexpectedly, he decided to conduct the rest of the interview. I was really nervous. Finally, the interview ended, he smiled at me, and said that I was a great candidate and that they would call me in a week to confirm my hiring. In the end, everything went all right and I'm pretty sure that I will get the job.
