

GRAMMAR DRILL

PRESENT PERFECT PROGRESSIVE (AFFIRMATIVE AND NEGATIVE)

NAME: _____

1 Underline the correct option.

- 1 I've been writing / written this essay all morning.
- 2 She has lost / been losing weight recently.
- 3 He has swum / been swimming twenty lengths every day.
- 4 I've look / been looking for my keys for an hour.
- 5 The children haven't been eating / ate well lately so they feel sick.
- 6 I've been saving / save up to buy a cell phone.
- 7 They haven't practice / been practicing soccer recently.

2 Complete the sentences with the present perfect progressive of the verbs in parentheses.

- 1 She _____ (work) in that company since she graduated from school.
- 2 They _____ (not answer) our emails. We should phone them.
- 3 Thelma _____ (see) Peter for the last weeks. She's fond of him.
- 4 The team _____ (not train) lately. They haven't got a coach yet.
- 5 Carlo _____ (study) hard since last Monday. He has exams next week.
- 6 We _____ (redecorate) the house this month. It's looking great!
- 7 You _____ (not pay) attention to what I said, have you?

3 Complete the sentences with the present perfect progressive of the verbs from the box.

try	jog	paint	work	listen
sleep	watch

- 1 I _____ this room all day long.
- 2 She's tired because she _____ well at night.
- 3 He _____ TV since 4 p.m. this afternoon.
- 4 We _____ to solve this exercise for two hours!
- 5 I _____ to your complaints all morning!
- 6 They _____ every morning in the park these last months.
- 7 You _____ until late all this week, haven't you?

4 Change the sentences to the affirmative or negative form.

- 1 I haven't been sleeping well lately.

- 2 I've been waiting here for hours.

- 3 The phone has been ringing all morning.

- 4 She hasn't been studying English for two years.

- 5 I've been living here recently.

- 6 He has been emailing me lately.

GRAMMAR DRILL

PRESENT PERFECT PROGRESSIVE (AFFIRMATIVE AND NEGATIVE)

5 Find and circle the mistake in each sentence.

- 1 She have been studying Italian this year.
- 2 The children have been behaved well lately.
- 3 They hasn't been working much these last two days.
- 4 That cat has sitting on that branch for the last hour.
- 5 It has being raining all day long!
- 6 They have been talked about the same topic all morning.
- 7 You hasn't been reading my email, have you?

6 Write sentences in present perfect progressive with the phrases provided.

- 1 travel / last three months

- 2 cook / lately

- 3 do / these last days

- 4 organize / for next Friday

- 5 attend / recently

- 6 work / since last Monday

- 7 play / all morning

7 Complete the second sentence so that it means the same as the first one. Use the present perfect progressive of the verbs in parentheses.

- 1 John started practicing piano a month ago.
(practice)

- 2 Sally bought those shoes last month and wears them every day. (wears)

- 3 I started calling Carol three hours ago. (call)

- 4 Paul stayed at a hotel by the sea last Friday.
He hasn't come back yet. (stay)

- 5 I started work at 7:00 a.m. and haven't finished yet. (work)

- 6 Laura moved to this neighborhood five years ago.
(live)

8 Write three sentences about what you have been doing lately and three about what you haven't been doing.

- 1 _____

- 2 _____

- 3 _____

- 4 _____

- 5 _____

- 6 _____